US002	PURPLE HEART (officially impressed: KENNETH A. CHAPMAN). Virtually As Struck. Medal accompanied by extensive range of photocopied documents from Private Chapman's personnel file (over 40 pages). Private Kenneth A. Chapman was born 19th January 1925 at Montpelier, Wells County, Indiana. Service papers indicate that Chapman came from something of a tough background, being brought up by his mother, his father, Burr Chapman, having abandoned the family when Kenneth was still below school age. Chapman enlisted on 19th September 1943, saw service with the 22nd Infantry, 4th Infantry Division, and was killed in action on 8th July 1944 (the 4th Infantry Division had landed at Utah Beach on D Day, 6th June 1944). Private Chapman was the son of Mrs Thelma Hutton of PO Box 422, Sturgis, Michigan, and the husband of Esther Chapman, who in the post-war years lived at Pleasant Street, Churubusco, Indiana. However, service papers indicate that Chapman's marriage may not have been a happy one. An affidavit filed by his mother contains claims that his marriage was a sham "they never lived together as husband and wife, she forced him to marry her and he refused to live with her", and claims that a son born to Esther Chapman subsequent to their marriage was not his "a child bears his name, though he never acknowledged paternity". The file also includes post-war correspondence with Private Chapman's mother-in-law, Mrs Ida Robertson, regarding her guardianship of Private Chapman's son, Paul Allen Chapman. Private Chapman was originally buried at St Mere Eglise Military Cemetery no. 2, Carentin, France, but his remains were disinterred on 12th May 1948 and returned to America for re-interment in his mother's home town at Oaklawn Cemetery, Sturgis, Michigan (documents regarding the transfer of Private Chapman's remains all give his next of kin as his mother). Service records note that Private Chapman was posthumously awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge on 28th September 1944.	£180.00	€216
